Are you planning a Japan-related event in 2013? Japan 400 is a celebration of 400 years of an ongoing, dynamic and close relationship between Britain and Japan. We feature a series of unique and exciting events that focus on this mutually beneficial relationship that takes us from the spirit of global discovery in 1613 into a shared and mutually supportive future. If you are planning an event that is actively and creatively building this relationship, sparking ideas off each other, and creating a new shared purpose, we'd love to hear from you. We can share the Japan 400 logo for use on your publicity and we can feature you on this website. Please fill in this simple form and send to Timon_Japan400@hotmail.com with details of your event, place, dates, and a brief explanation on just how your event is ensuring this 400 year old relationship continues to be shared by future generations.
